Alert-it Alarm Message Responses

Name of user

Alarm:

 URGENT = Life critical alarm: Attend immediately

 HELP = Comfort critical alarm: Attend with speed

 ASSIST= Non critical alarm

 FAULT= Equipment needs servicing

Special Fault Alarms

RF FAIL: Correct immediately as radio contact has been lost with the user's equipment
FAULT30: The user's battery needs charging or replacing, when convenient
FAULT31: The user's battery is almost exhausted and needs charging re replacing immediately

Action:

1. The pager sound can be muted by pressing

2. Attend the user.

3. Reset the alarm on the user's equipment (see examples below)

Press to reset

Press for 1 second until LED stops flashing (and beep heard on some units)

Press Disarm to cancel

Full adjustment details are found in handbooks available on:
www.alert-it.co.uk/handbooks/
Or by phoning Alert-it

Basic User Pager Information
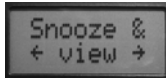

Typical screens in normal operation

battery
▫▪▪▫▫

chargin
▫▪▪▫▫

NODE 00
▫▪▪▫▫ ¥▪▪▫▫

[MENU ▽]   or   [△ SEL]

Press 3 sec to enter setup

setup & edit

[◁]   [▷]

Press to silence alarms

Snooze & ← view →

Scroll to menu item required eg.

(shows a list of all alarm units)

USERmode
← ^ →
Turn Off
← ^ →

Turn off may require a password depending on the security level set by the Supervisor

[△ SEL]

Select item

etc

Light
← ^ →

Vibrate
← ^ →

Key beep
← ^ →

Tunes
← ^ →

RF Tune
← ^ →

Backlight

Vibrate Mode
Beep on key press
Sound on Alarm

Sound if RF Fail

Select any item to change

[△ SEL]

---ON---
ON ^ OFF

Use keys to select
on or off

[◁]   [▷]

Press select to save any change
or Menu to abort

[△ SEL] [MENU ▽]

---ON--- Saving
The RF Fail warning could be a normal daytime occurrence if the bedside units are turned off. Disabling the tunes stops the annoyance of the audible warning, but the display will still warn on the situation